

A good idea for an unforgettable family getaway!

Québec, March 4th, 2011 – During the March break, between the 7th and the 11th, the visit of the Hôtel de Glace is free for all children aged of 12 years old and under (limit of three children for two adults). Enjoy this advantageous offer and discover this remarkable winter attraction with your family. A full range of fun activities are planned. Here are a few:

The North Face Grand Ice Slide

Measuring 66 feet long, the 2011 Grand Ice Slide is the longest ever built at the Hôtel de Glace. Located in the great Hall, the Grand Ice Slide recalls the beauties of the arctic climate. To symbolize this theme, penguins, walrus and a white wolf have been carved in ice. This must-see attraction promises lots of fun for each member of the family!

Sugar shack

Indulge your sweet tooth with the delicious maple products available at the Hôtel de Glace's sugar shack. Enjoy taffy-on-the-snow and meet the owners who will be pleased to share with you their passion for these famous recipes.

Family Rally

Discover the Hôtel de Glace in all its aspects by participating in this exciting rally. Answer to the quiz and learn while having fun. An interesting adventure for the whole family!

Guided tours

Between 10 am and 5 pm, follow our experienced guides during an exciting tour of this masterful work of art made of ice and snow. Learn more about the story of the Hôtel de Glace, its architecture, its construction and how to get prepared for this unique experience.

Stargazing and conference at the chapel

On March 11th at 7 pm, watch the sky's wonders with the astronomy club Vega from Cap-Rouge. You will admire the stars with telescopes and learn more about this subject. The animators on site will answer your questions and take you to the edge of the universe! Please note that this activity is subject to the weather conditions and may be cancelled.

Until March 27th, 2011, enjoy a unique winter experience in the heart of the capital!
